Friends,

It's always fascinating to me how the genre of science fiction can be used to address some of the most enduring philosophical and ethical questions surrounding human nature. In fact, one of the addictive features of franchises like "Star Wars" and "Star Trek" to my generation is not simply the valiant heroes, the classic villains, or even the special effects, but rather the great philosophical questions that undergird the plot lines. Of course, such questions were not unique to 'modern' science fiction. In fact, the 19th century was filled with classics such as Mary Shelly's "Frankenstein" and H. G. Wells' "The Invisible Man" that were able to synthesize the same formulations.

In fact, I was reminded of the Wells' classic recently when praying with the Gospel of St. Luke. It was always curious to me how Jesus could be so understanding with prostitutes, tax collectors and adulterers and so harsh with the Pharisees and Sadducees. After all, the Pharisees and Sadducees were the leading men of Jesus' day. In an era where literacy was rare, the Pharisees and Sadducees were educated men, schooled in the intricacies of the Jewish faith. Even more to the point, they were men of the temple that, by and large, remained faithful to the Jewish law.

At least that was their reputation. Jesus is going to challenge this reputation rather vehemently. "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside you yourselves are full of greed and robbery." Clearly, Jesus is accusing the Pharisees of hypocrisy. But, the subtlety of this hypocrisy is enlightening.

Usually when one thinks of hypocrisy, we think of someone who doesn't practice what he preaches. Technically speaking, this is not true. Although someone who doesn't practice what he preaches is always a sinner, they may or may not be a hypocrite. Hypocrisy is not simply failing to practice what you preach. Hypocrisy is failing to believe what you preach.

This subtle, but crucial, distinction is the reason why Jesus is so harsh with the Pharisees and so gentle with other sinners. While other sinners recognize their weakness and admit it, hypocrites deny their weakness and strive to cover it up. This is why hypocrisy is one of the most destructive weapons in the devil's arsenal of shame. When faced with the evilness of his behavior, the sinner throws himself on the mercy of Jesus. The hypocrite, on the other hand, seeks to hide it; hide it from others, hide it from Jesus and even hide it from himself. In other words, the hypocrite tries to make his sins invisible.

This he does in numerous ways. First, the hypocrite makes sure certain parts of his life are really shiny and clean so as to keep others focusing on them instead of looking in darker places.

Second, the hypocrite tries to hide and cover up his behavior, not just from others, but most destructively, from himself as well. This he does by mutilating his conscience into believing that what he has done is not really THAT evil, or even after time, that his behavior is not evil at all. In some extreme cases (examples of these kinds of cases can be seen in the disaster marriage has become in our western society), that bad behavior may be even become laudable behavior. Should anyone challenge his delusion or threaten to make visible what the hypocrite has worked so hard to hide, the hypocrite becomes irate, even to the point of violence. The hypocritical heart cannot tolerate the reality of exposure. (continued on last page)

*THANK YOU:

- Thank you to Fr. Wayne, all the volunteers and circles #5 and #7 for helping clean and can corn for the upcoming bazaar. It was a great success—the corn is ready to go! We also wanted to thank circles #2 and #4 for helping prepare chicken back in June for our famous dressing. Everyone's help makes this a success each year!
- Thank you to Ryan Preister for the loins, Bank of Lindsay for the napkins and silverware, Josh Wessel (National Guard) for the Hungry Hippo game, Jordan Bender for the hayrack ride, and to all those who came out for our parish cluster potluck!

*RCIA CLASSES WILL BEGIN SOON: If you would like to sign up for these classes, please contact Karen at the parish office (402-923-0913).

*PRE REGISTRATION IS NOW!: Come to St. Francis high school Wednesday, August 25, or Wednesday, September 1, from 6:00 PM-7:00 PM to register your children.

*BIG RED BASH 2021: Join us Saturday, September 25, for the Huskers vs Michigan State Spartans! Watch future bulletins for more details! The Catholic Order of Foresters have sponsored this event for the past 24 years, raising roughly $227,000 to benefit St. Francis School's technology fund. We thank you for your past and continued support! See you on game day!

WE ARE HIRING

St. Francis School has one full-time and one part-time custodian opening. Full-time position includes benefits. Both positions provide flexible hours and competitive wages.

Also Needed: Cook for the cafeteria.

Call Mrs. Dunn for more info at 402-923-0818.

CLUSTER PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHECK OUT THIS PAGE EVERY WEEK TO SEE WHAT'S HAPPENING IN OUR PARISHES, THE SURROUNDING PARISHES, SNIPITS FROM FR. OLSEN & MORE!

(continued from page 1) Isn't this really true in our age as well? Isn't this why people promoting abortion "rights", same gender "marriage", LGBTQ or "physician assisted" suicide become so angry when their opinions are challenged? In fact, the arbitrariness of this hypocrisy always strikes me in the reality that smoking tobacco is one of society's last great taboos, but the legalization of marijuana is one of its new crusades.

Perhaps, then, this gives us a gauge to measure the hypocrisy in our own lives. To the extent we live dual lives, to the extent we are the invisible man, we are victims of hypocrisy. The old adage is really true; our true character is revealed, not when all eyes are on us, but when no one else is around. If the ability to make ourselves invisible would change our behavior in any significant way, perhaps that is because we are more interested in what people around us think rather than what God thinks, which may be a pretty darn good definition of hypocrisy.

Of course, it is also a pretty good one for stupidity as well. After all, we are never invisible to God. Every action, no matter how clandestine or well hidden we may think it is or how well we may have covered it up, is done in the presence of Jesus Christ. To pretend like it isn't is not only the very definition of hypocrisy, but a pretty good one for stupidity as well.

In Christ,

Fr. EJA

ARCHDIOCESE of OMAHA

SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING

There will be an Initial Safe Environment Training in Humphrey in the high school cafeteria on Wednesday, September 1, at 6:30 PM.

Anybody who has contact with our youth needs to be Safe Environment trained, including cafeteria volunteers, field trip sponsors, PRE teachers, etc.

To register for the training, go to <http://omaha.cmgconnect.org/> and create an account. Follow the steps for the initial live training, and RSVP to attend. If you are unable to attend on Sept. 1, there is another training in Norfolk on September 13 that you can attend using the same directions mentioned above. If you have any questions, you can contact Missy Braun at the parish office (402-923-0913) and leave a message, or send an email to mbraun@hsfschool.org.
