Friends,

When I was a kid, having company over for the holidays, or any other time for that matter, was always something of a mixed blessing. On the one hand, company provided a welcome distraction from having to deal exclusively with my brothers and sisters. On the other hand, company also meant a lot of work. My parents usually tolerated a certain level of messiness in the house when we were alone. However, company meant that our house must be cleaned thoroughly.

Seen in this light, the season of Advent might take on a deeper meaning. During Advent, the Church is called to prepare its house for the arrival of Jesus Christ. Just like the anticipated arrival of a special dignitary would necessitate a special level of preparation for our home, so, too, the anticipated arrival of Jesus Christ demands, not simply some cursory level of preparation of the Church, but rather a level of preparation that is worthy of such an esteemed guest.

Part of this cleaning is obvious. The church, as the Lord's house, will be decorated in a way that draws our attention to the coming of the Guest. But, there is another house that also must be prepared for the coming of Jesus Christ. That house is our body. Not only does St. Paul call our body a temple, the temple of the Holy Spirit, but also Jesus, when He is making His final journey to Jerusalem, challenges the Jews that if they destroy this temple, He will rebuild it in three days. Of course, the temple to which He was referring was not one made of mortar and brick. No. The temple Jesus refers to is His body.

This temple, this house, must also be prepared for the arrival of our supreme company. Sometimes, however, it seems to me that our attitude toward cleaning this temple of the Holy Spirit is similar to my attitude when told by my parents to clean my room because we had company coming. Any clothes on the floor would be stuffed into the closet or under the bed. The vacuum cleaner would be turned on, but never pushed. Any garbage would not be taken out and disposed of properly, but rather hidden in some secret place until its stench became potent enough to lead to its discovery.

Yet, how many of us have similar attitudes to our Advent call to prepare our house. Recognize that we receive this guest, not simply at Christmas but also each and every time we attend Mass or receive Holy Communion. Yet how many times have we received this greatest of all guests in hands that have been dirtied, not by the soil of hard work, but by the filthiness of sin? How many times have we received this guest into mouths that are soiled by foul language, gossip, slander, detraction, lies or even sexual indiscretion?

During this Advent season we are called in a special way to clean this house of the ugliness of sin so that it might be a nicer place for this most special guest to visit. Of course, this cleansing is done most appropriately in the sacrament of confession. Sometimes, however, I get the impression that we think that God is as gullible as my parents were when inspecting the part of our house that I was supposed to clean. We think that if we hide certain sins from the priest by stuffing them in the closet, sweeping them under the rug, or hiding them under the bed, we will trick him into thinking our room is clean. Unfortunately, this will appear to work because the priest cannot see what is hidden. But God, who sees in secret, will not only see the dirtiness we work so hard to hide, but will also be saddened by our thinking Him to be such a fool.

During Advent it is so important, not simply to go to confession, but also to make a good confession. This is done by examining our conscience for every speck of dirt we can find and begging God for the courage to trust Him enough to bring this dirt before His priest. Unlike human beings that are so often repulsed by the dirtiness of sin, God is not. Rather, He embraces it, knowing that He cannot only eradicate the darkness of sin, but leave in its place a truly clean house; a house worthy of receiving His Son.

Blessings,

Fr. EJA

THANK YOUS: Thank you for the gift given in memory of Dave Bender to the scholarship fund.

- Thank you for the gift given in memory of Ralph Mausbach to the technology fund and the school.
- Our school received a check in the amount of $160.86 for recycled aluminum cans. Thank you to everyone who continues to support our school by bringing in their aluminum to be recycled!

DON'T FORGET TO ORDER YOUR SCRIP GIFT CARDS FOR CHRISTMAS SOON! Orders received before Sunday each week usually come in that same week. Delivery times move out further the closer Christmas gets. For a complete list of retailers, go to shopwithscrip.com, click on "Shop" and "Browse Brands". For a complete list, click "Alphabetical List" under the "Retailer List" on the left side of the page. The alphabetical list will list the percentage of rebate that is earned with each purchase, as well as the type of cards available. For instance, cards marked $25, $100, etc. are actual hard cards, those marked "E" are available in electronic form and those marked "R" are cards that can be reloaded so you don't have to necessarily purchase new cards. Food and clothing stores usually give the highest paybacks to St. Francis. SCRIP is sold after most weekend Masses. Won't you consider purchasing some today?

Christian Mothers Soup Lunch & Knights of Columbus Poultry BINGO!

Sunday, December 5

Need a turkey?? Come on down to the church basement after Mass!

THE SEASON OF ADVENT

IN THE UNEXPECTED

"What could happen next?" How many times have you asked yourself that question in the past year? Though we most often use that expression when things don't seem to be going our way, this year it has been an expression of the constant changes to our world which the COVID-19 pandemic has wrought. But we might use the same expression to explain our feelings of being overwhelmed by blessings and good things, when the stars seem to align just right.

No matter what, we can say with certainty that tomorrow will not go exactly as we envisioned. Our lives are influenced by so many factors and the world around us is increasingly complex. Rather than be surprised by the unexpected, maybe we should expect the unexpected.

Living in this manner causes us to cherish more deeply the gifts we have been given. It helps us to live in the present and become mindful of those around us. Our relationships deepen. Our sense of responsibility builds. Our stewardship way of life finds new meaning and purpose.

This Advent will not be the same experience as last Advent. It remains to be seen what the coming days and weeks have in store for each of us. However, no matter what happens, Jesus Christ is there to welcome us to the unexpected. He will celebrate with us in joy and he will even feel our pain. You can count on the unexpected, but you can also count on Him to be there with you. He is now and forever, Emmanuel, "God with us." He is the expected in all things unexpected.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
