Friends,

From a literary standpoint, the bible is a romantic comedy. In classic literature, a comedy is a book with a happy ending. The bible certainly has that. Additionally, its basic plot is that of a love story. The bible begins with a lover, God, pursuing His beloved people, which is the Church. The people of God rebuff His pursuits, but God doesn't give up. Millennia of hijinks ensue until, at last, the guy finally gets His gal. They get married and live happily ever after.

This is why one of the images we so often use to describe the Church is the Bride of Christ. Ironically, the root of this image flows from the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ. Recall that Jesus is crucified with two criminals. The Roman soldiers break the legs of these two criminals, but when they discover that Jesus is already dead, one of the soldiers thrusts a lance into Jesus' side and blood and water flows out.

Now, I have some experience with puncture wounds. Never has this experience included the presence of water. Blood? Always. Water? Never! Nevertheless, this depiction is physiologically accurate. Jesus would have died from asphyxiation, which meant His lungs filled with fluid. When the lance pierced His sacred body, the fluid accumulated in His lung sprayed out. Additionally, the blood flow would have quickened substantially when that lance pierced Jesus' heart.

However, the true reason for inclusion of this final desecration of Our Lord's sacred body is spiritual. In Sacred Scripture, water is always an illusion to baptism. Additionally, the blood present symbolizes the Eucharist. These two sacraments are the ones from which the other five flow. As such, they are the foundation of the Church. This truth takes on a deeper significance when it is tied to the truth that Jesus is the New Adam. Both Jesus and Adam were sinless at the time of their trial. But, while Adam's disobedience brought sin and death into the world, Jesus' obedience ushered in forgiveness and life. Notice something else. Adam's bride, Eve, came from his side. It only follows, then, that the Church is the Bride of Jesus since She comes out of the side of the New Adam.

This insight has dramatic consequences. Just as a man and a woman become one flesh when they consent to be united in Holy Matrimony, so, too, Jesus and His bride, the Church, are one flesh. In fact, the Union of Jesus and His Church is so radical that St. Paul uses the image of Jesus as the Head and the Church as the Body. Just as a head cannot exist apart from the body, so, too, Jesus does not exist apart from the Church. You see, the union of a man and a woman in Holy Matrimony is but a pale imitation of the union of Jesus and His Church. Yet, even a man and woman united in Holy Matrimony cannot be separated. How much more so, then, can Jesus never be separated from His Church?

Nevertheless, how diligently our modern society pushes for this divorce! How often do we hear people say things like, "I'm spiritual, but not religious." "I follow Jesus, not some human institution." "I don't need a church to worship God." All of these are attempts to divorce Jesus from His Church, and they are even less possible than a husband truly divorcing his wife.

The reverse is often the problem with Catholics. All too often, we act as if we can get to heaven through the Church and don't have to be disciples of Jesus. Many of us are cultural Catholics careful to maintain all the outward appearances of Catholicism. However, our desire for self-denial, evangelization and a personal relationship with Jesus seems dispensable. What is this but trying to get to heaven through the Church and not through Jesus Christ, which is just as fruitless?

Blessings,

F. EJA
