Friends,

I'm a huge fan of St. Peter. First, he's a fisherman, which is probably sufficient in my book. Additionally, in spite of any formal education, St. Peter showed flashes of brilliance in testifying that Jesus is the Christ on two separate occasions. I also find his courage, although convenient and impetuous at times, to also be remarkable. How many of us would draw our swords in the face of the bands of soldiers arresting Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane? Which of us would actually get out of a boat at night during a storm because Jesus invited us to do so?

But, to me, the single most admirable quality of St. Peter is his perseverance. St. Peter never gives up. When Jesus tells Peter to get behind Him and calls Him Satan, St. Peter doesn't throw a fit and leave. When St. Peter turns away from Jesus and sinks into the sea after Jesus invites him to walk on the water, he still grabs Jesus' hand to be raised up. When St. Peter tells Jesus that Jesus will never wash his feet, he doesn't turn away at Jesus' gentle rebuke. Most of all, when St. Peter denies Jesus three times, he doesn't run off and kill himself as Judas did. Rather, he turns back to Jesus for forgiveness.

Notice what happens next. Throughout the book of the Acts of the Apostles, the apostle boldly proclaiming the Good News to the Jewish crowds is none other than St. Peter. This is remarkable. The same man who, in the solitude of the high priest's courtyard, wouldn't admit that he even knows Jesus now preaches the Good News to huge crowds and being threatened with both imprisonment as well as physical violence. What happened?

The obvious answer is the resurrection, and that is true. But recall that St. Peter's first encounter with the resurrected Christ doesn't seem to have much of an effect. St. Peter is still cowering in the upper room weeks after witnessing the resurrected Christ. Something after this led to this transformation.

The answer, hopefully, is obvious. Pentecost. It is Pentecost where the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete, descends upon St. Peter and the rest of the disciples, and it is this power that transformed their lives, especially St. Peter's!

This is what makes the gift of the Holy Spirit so important. When we receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, we receive the very bond of love shared between the Father and the Son. We first share in this gift at our baptism. This gift is sealed at our confirmation. If we choose to sin mortally, this gift can be restored to us through the Sacrament of Penance. Best of all, with the gift of the Holy Spirit we are adopted into the very family of God. You see, all of us were born enemies of God because of Original Sin. At our baptism, however, God the Father adopts us by allowing us to participate in the very love that He has for His Son by giving us the Holy Spirit. It is precisely because we now possess the bond of love between God the Father and God the Son that we who are baptized are properly called the adopted sons and daughters of God.

Naturally, this same Holy Spirit is willing to transform our lives in the same way He transformed the life of St. Peter. The way we allow Him is through our prayer. As a gift, this power of the Holy Spirit can in no way be earned. Like any other gift, it must be requested. The way we request things from God is through prayer. So this week and every week, pray to be guided by the Holy Spirit. Pray to know what to say, when to say it and how to say it. Pray to know what to do, when to do it and how to do it. The Holy Spirit longs to guide our lives so that we can become instruments of God, but the only way He can do so is through prayer.

Blessings,

Fr. EJA

BAPTISM: We welcome the newly baptized and pray for the parents who are the first teachers of their children in the ways of faith: Graham Clifford Jenkinson, son of Trey & Rachel Jenkinson, was born January 11, 2022, and baptized on April 3, 2022.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN PRAYER the soul of Alice Jarecki (mother of Sue Zach & Diane Krings of our parish) who passed away. May her soul, and the souls of the faithfully departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

THANK YOUS: The 500 Club would like to thank everybody who bought tickets, donated items or helped with the 500 Club dinner this year. It was a great success, and we were able to present a check for $14,000 to the church!

- The family of Tom Wemhoff would like to say thank you to everyone for their prayers and support during this time of the loss of our dad, grandpa and great-grandpa. A special thank you to Fr. Eric Olsen for the beautiful Mass and the words of support for our dad and families, Deacon Dennis Anderson for the wonderful wake service, Duesman Funeral Home and Gary Sharman for their professionalism and thoughtfulness through the planning process. Thanks to Jill Werner and Jackson Wemhoff for the beautiful music at Mass, the ladies who prepared the meal and all who brought food in, the memorials, cards, phone calls and visits. Also, thank you to our Countryside Home family for your care for dad. He always felt that he was at home there. And lastly, thanks to Asera Care Hospice—we truly appreciate the care and preparation you helped us with. All of your thoughtfulness means the world to all of us. In lieu of thank you notes, a Mass of thanksgiving will be offered at a later date. ~The Tom Wemhoff Family

- I wish to thank everyone for the beautiful cards, flowers, balloons and phone calls for my 90th birthday! And even though rescheduled, it was a beautiful day for my open house in Humphrey. Thanks to all who were able to attend. I am truly blessed. ~Dorothy Pfeifer
